Hi-Light

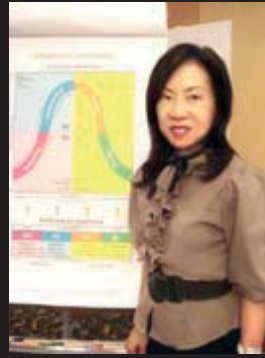

Orchid Slingshot has been very successful in organizing the Situational Leadership[®] seminar recently. Let's hear from the participants from various walks of life.

Khun Jarunan Ithi-Awatchakul
Vice President
Human Resources Development
Advanced Info Service Public
Company Limited

Top Management from the leading telecommunication business. Very few people in the Human Resources field do not know her.

"This course confirms, elaborate, and add to other Leadership trainings I've participated before. It's beneficial for everyone, not only those who have subordinates, but also those who are specialists and have to lead their peers. This training gives a complete guidance on how to analyze the readiness of whom we want to influence and support them appropriately. Enabling us to be thorough in both the work and the people, therefore, beneficial for the leader, the organization, and the subordinate - - meaning that we can give the stage for the them to shine out and grow."

Khun Manida Rachvangmuang
Senior Vice President
Human Resources Department
Central Retail Corporation Ltd.

She is the management in Human Resources from the Retail business, responsible for more than 20,000 employees from many companies, namely Central, Robinson, Tops, Power Buy, Super Sport, Homework, BTS, Office Depot, and Central Online.

"Most Leadership training courses are similar, depending on the focused area. The management that has attended other training courses will have to refer to 'trust' in the Leadership discipline to see if he/she will be interested in attending more courses. I came to this seminar because I have confidence in trainer. Besides the clear and practical concept of the course content, the important thing is that he can smoothly relay the story, give relevant examples, as well as answer questions to the point. It is really worth my time."

Khun Naphol Lertsumitkul
Director, Assistant to the President
Srithai Superware Public Company
Limited

Young and active management team, Responsible for a business with more than 30,000 SKU, from plate and bowl to automobile parts and electronics part.

"I think this training is very useful. It gives guidance on how to analyze the situation, peers, and subordinates, facilitating the work and people management to be smooth, as well as reminding us to develop ourselves to be well accepted among our employees. It enhances our leadership competency to the next level."

Khun Tharakorn Bowornsujaritkul
Chief Finance Officer
The Royal Bangkok Sports Club

Young and polite management from an organization of a hundred year history known as 'Sport Club'. He manages from Accounting, Finance, to IT, Purchase, and Administration.

"This training course is different from other courses I attended. It is a building block on top of other leadership courses, enabling us to better apply what we learned to the real life situation. The instructor himself is able to transfer his knowledge in a clear and simple way. It greatly meets my expectation."
